Brides

Are always "beautiful" and "happy" according to the society reporters, and in this case the report is mostly true. There may be unhappy brides in fiction, but there are few in real life. But how hard it is to look upon many of the wives we know, and believe that they were once beautiful and happy. Pain, the result of womanly disease, has marred beauty and undermined happiness.

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

Backed up by over a third of a century of remarkable and uniform cures, a record such as no other remedy for the diseases and weaknesses peculiar to women ever attained, the proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States, for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

"I have thought for some time I would write you and tell you of the great improvement in my health since taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" says Mrs. H. S. Jones, of Forest, N. C. "When I began its use I was a physical wreck and had despaired of ever having any health again. Could not sit up all day, and was so weak I could not walk one quarter of a mile. I noted a great improvement in my health before the first bottle was used. Was suffering with almost every pain that a woman is subject to: had inflammation of ovaries, painful and suppressed periods, and other symptoms of female disease. After taking six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' I felt like a new person. Can ride horseback and take all kinds of exercise and do not feel tired."

If you are looking for a perfect laxative try Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

LETTER FROM MR. BRYAN.

The following letter from William J. Bryan to Mr. M. G. Palliser, who has called an anti-Parker meeting in New York, was made public yesterday:

Lincoln, Neb., June 9, 1904.

Mr. M. G. Palliser, New York City.

Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your letter, inclosing the call for a convention of protest, to be held in New York on the 20th of June. I am very glad this step is being taken, and assume that it is not the object of the protesting convention to send a protesting delegation to St. Louis or to question in any way the regularity of the Albany convention, but merely to enter a protest on behalf of a large number of New York voters, who believe in honesty in politics and are opposed to the burglarious methods which are now being employed to foist upon the party a speechless candidate and a meaningless platform.

The argument made in favor of Judge Parker is not that he is in any way fitted for the position, because his fitness cannot possibly be ascertained without a knowledge of his views on public questions. The argument made by his friends is that he can win, and they base their belief on the fact that he has never said anything in connection with pending questions, he had no record that can be used against him. His virtues are purely negative, and his friends think it sufficient that the democrats send him forth as a candidate with the endorsement "We know nothing against him."

It is the first time, in recent years, at least, that a man has been urged for so high a position on the ground that his opinions are unknown. Surely the democratic party is in desperate straits if among all of its members it cannot find a trustworthy man who has ever been interested enough in public questions to give expression to his opinion. In the great contest between democracy and plutocracy our party should take a positive and aggressive stand, and it should present a standard bearer who will infuse courage and enthusiasm among the masses.

I am glad that there are democrats in New York who are willing to register such a protest as your call suggests, and I trust that the protest may be effective at St. Louis. When it is shown, as I believe it can be shown, that a non-committal candidate would not be popular with the voters even in New York, the Parker candidacy will lose its only prop. I mistake the loyalty and earnestness of the democrats who were true to the ticket in 1896, when loyalty meant abuse and ostracism, if they are really in favor of a silent candidate whose most conspicuous supporters have in recent years been more familiar with republican headquarters than with democratic headquarters. Very truly yours,

W. J. BRYAN.

KILLED IN FEUD.

Three men are dead and two wounded, one fatally, as the result of a pistol fight on the streets of Bryantsville, Ind., yesterday. The dead are: James and Charles Rout and Milton Tow. James Tow is fatally wounded and Frank Tow is badly hurt.

The fight was the culmination of a feud between the Rout and Tow families. The Rout live at Bedford, eight miles from Bryantsville, and the Tows are farmers, living near Bryantsville. The Tows are relatives of the Tow family which participated in the bloody Tow-Bass feud some time ago.

A free gravel road election was held at Bryantsville yesterday and the village was crowded with farmers. There had been considerable drinking and when the Rout brothers drove into town and passed the Tows, who were standing near the election booth, trouble was looked for. Two weeks ago at a social affair the hostility between the two families had been rekindled by a fancied insult to Charles Rout by a young woman who favored one of the Tow boys. Hostilities were averted at the time, but yesterday the Rout brothers announced on their arrival at Bryantsville that they had come to "even things up."

Five minutes after the Rout reached town they were seen approaching the election booth. The Tow brothers stood about 100 feet apart awaiting the arrival of the Rout. There is a dispute as to whether there were any words before the shooting began and it is also in doubt as to who fired the first shot, but it seemed to be recognized by all the participants that it was fought to the death. Each of the five men drew a revolver and each side advanced, all firing. The men were not 15 feet apart when the firing ceased. On the ground the two Rout brothers and Milton Tow lay dead. James Tow was prostrate, fatally hurt, and Frank Tow, though able to stand, had a bullet in his arm and another in his side.

The crowd had scattered hastily when the shooting began and none of the bystanders was struck, although more than 25 shots were fired. The wounded were taken to a store and their wounds dressed. The three dead were laid side by side on the counter to await the arrival of the coroner and officers from Bedford. There is intense excitement at Bryantsville.

Driven to Desperation

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It is the best on earth. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets Better than a Doctor's Prescription.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truist, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound a medicine that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine.
